Ergo stepped into those practice sessions ensuring:

1. The practice was completed and evaluated on the spot (the school's requirement to review the transcript).
2. Ergo ensured that the practice was done to a high standard by Maria.
3. The tutors were either Math tutors that covered Non-Verbal Reasoning or English tutors that covered Verbal Reasonings. Some sessions covered work set by the school and others were planned around the requirements by the Ergo tutors.
4. She worked with the same two people throughout the summer allowing the tutors to have a mentoring role as well as providing academic support.
5. Maria loved the predictability and consistency of her schedule. She also knew that once that hour was over, she was free to get on with her day.
6. Maria's parents avoided the issue of having to nag her to sit down and do it and so it was a much less stressful experience for everyone concerned.

Maria also worked externally with an English and Math tutor.
